

Upon remand, the Administrative Law Judge (“ALJ”) shall hold a new hearing; take any action needed to complete the administrative record; obtain further vocational expert testimony if necessary; and issue a new decision. The ALJ is directed to evaluate and explain what weight is afforded to all opinions found in the record; evaluate anew Plaintiff's impairments in accordance with Social Security regulations; reevaluate whether Plaintiff's impairments meet a Listing; further consider Plaintiff's residual functional capacity; further evaluate Plaintiff's subjective complaints; and address and resolve any apparent conflicts in the record.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that, for good cause shown:

1. Defendant's Consent Motion to Remand, (Doc. No. 7), is GRANTED. The Court hereby REVERSES the decision of the Commissioner and REMANDS this case for further administrative proceedings.
2. The Clerk of Court is directed to enter a separate judgment pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 58 and to close this case.

Signed: September 26, 2016

Robert J. Conrad, Jr.
United States District Judge
